Old Business

New Business

Robert Veldman came to speak about his involvement in the Bid Card Prank. Wanted to admit his guilt and apologize for any harm or confusion caused. He said that he didn't think through the scope of his damage. It was meant to be done in good fun, but he realized that he was wrong.

Amir Sheth also admitted guilt to being a part of the bid card prank. He was wrong and didn't realize what was going to happen or think through his actions. He said that he was sorry he did it.

Andy Williams also came to apologize for his actions. It was a quick, rash decision and not well thought out. He realized that his actions were not harmless and wants to apologize to anyone who was hurt by it.

Announcements

Motion to adjourn: 1st kappa kappa gamma, delta delta delta 2nd

Respectfully submitted,

Brette Hogan
Panhellenic Council
VP of Public Relations
